The Weekly Report of the United States Signal Office—Temperature, &c. Signal Office—Temperature, &c.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—The following is the weather crop bulletin for the week ended Saturday, April 14: SIGNAL OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT.

Temperature-The week ended April reapperaure—are week ended April I has been warmer than usual in the Southern States, central valleys and the northwest, and colder than usual in New England and the Middle Atlantic States. The average daily excess of temperature ranged from 3 to 6 degrees in the South-ern States and central valleys, and from 6 to 10 degrees in the South-6 to 10 degrees in the extreme north-west, while in New England and the temperature was from 30 to 60 degrees below the normal. The season from January 1 to April 14 has been colder than usual throughout the Northern than usual throughout the Northern States, the average daily temperature ranging from 5 to 7 degrees below the normal in the northwest and from 3 to 3] degrees north of the Ohio Valey, in New England and the Middle Atlantic States, while through the Southern States the temperature for the season has dif-iered but slightly from the normal. Rainfall.—The rainfall for the week has been slightly in excess in the Ohio has been slightly in excess in the Oh and Central Mississippi Valleys, Missour Kansas, Kentucky and Northern Ter nessee. There has also been a slight excess of rainfall on the Middle Atlantic coast and from Northern New England land, the present representative westward to Wisconsin. For the season westward to Wisconsin. For the season here has been more rain than usual in the southern portion of the Gulf States, and generally from the Mississippi river westward to the Rocky Mountains. Slight excesses are also reported in New England, New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana, while generally throughout the winter wheat States from 75 to 90 per cent of the usual amount of rain is reported.

General remarks.—The weather for the week has been favorable for growing crops in all agricultural districts. Reorts from the Southern States show that the week was favorable for cotton and cane, and that the small grain crops have been affected favorably. The season is probably ten days late in the Middle Atlantic States.

Yesterday-A Telegram That There was Little Hope Followed by a Favorable Bulletin-Fears

New York, April 15,-Last night was a bad one for ex-Senator Conkling. He slept but little and was much affected by a hard cough that disturbed him every few minutes. He is much prostrated by it, and this morning was weak and nervous. It has been found necessary to engage an assistant nurse for him. Mrs. Conkling, who has been almost constantly at her husband's bedside, retired this morning to secure much needed rest. Mrs. Oakman, the Senator's daughter, remained in her father's room all night and is still with

Mr. O'Brien Taken to Loughrea—But Slight Disorder.

Dunlin, April 15.—Mr. O'Brien, who as arrested yesterday, reached Loughrea about midnight last night. The Magistrate remanded his case until a Thursday next and admitted him to bail, Mr. O'Brien was cheerful and states the only charge against him was that he gave Balfour the lie in his throat last Sunday. Mr. O'Brien will return to Dublin to-morrow. The public was excluded from the railroad station. There was slight disorder, and some arrests were nade. The meeting at New Ross to-day was small and passed off quietly.
The soldiers and police were confined to their barracks. The meeting expressed indignation at the arrest of Mr. O'Brien Messrs. Barry, Chance and John and William Redmond, members of Parliament, made speeches. Detectives are watching Mr. Dillon's Dublin residence.
After his being released Mr. O'Brien addressed a meeting of the suppressed branch of the league, at which a resolution was adopted pledging every member to follow Mr. O'Brien to prison in defence of the right of public meeting.

POPE LEO XIII.

Find it Necessary to Come to America. London, April 15. — The Pall Mall lazette, in a letter headed, "Should the Pope Leave Rome for America," refer to the proposed Italian penal code and says: "If it passes the Italian Chamber in its present form it is the opinion of the papal throne."

The Gazette quotes from an article in The Gazette quotes from an article in the Tablet written in the same strain, and concludes: "If the present Pope remains in Rome, there will never be another Pope. Rome is not the head of christendom; but if the papacy is really a providential mission, as its adherents claim, then it is necessary as an indispensable step toward its realization that the Pope quit the old world and found the throne of Saint Peter in the new world and in the free atmosphere of civilized democracy.

eparture in the direction of women's departure in the direction of women's rights has been made in Union county. Miss Eliza A. Garner, is out in a card announcing herself as a candidate for school commissioner at the approaching election. In her card, she said that she proposes, if elected, to give $500 worth of school books to the poor children of the public schools, and all her time and means to the cause of education. She asks the votes and prayers of the people in her behalf.
